Bailey Canyon Music Bowl To Seat 2,500, Planned To Rival Any Park In State

Head Of City Commission Tells Of Natural Outdoor Stage
As City Workers Make Amazing Transformation—500
Trees Ready To Plant At Entrance And New Road
Will Shortly Be Under Way—

By HARRY BURKE

Bailey Canyon, owned by the city, and until a few short weeks ago just a scraggly opening in the hills, its floor unkempt, its paths overgrown, is slowly but surely being transformed into what promises to be one of the real show places of California. With all the best that nature can provide to make a perfect garden spot, the city workers, under the direction of the City Planning Commission, are developing a park of which it can truly be said: "Well, in all the world there's nothing like this."

The magic lamp of Aladdin could not have accomplished more, for presto, the entrance to the canyon has been cleared and made ready for the planting of 500 trees, brush cleaned out, paths and trails cut in the hillsides, nooks and shady corners, under umbrellas of greens, turned into restful retreats for those who seek the peace and solitude of nature. And the work is just fairly started.

Almost overnight the landscape approaching the canyon and the interior itself, have taken on a new dress, as if the curtain had come down on the sordid markings of all-time elements and risen again on an area that had undergone a spring-time cleaning.

The new vista is open and far-reaching with nature's own props in all their natural glory. To the East, on the hill, rises the new Passionist monastery, an enduring monument of artistic solidity, in keeping with the spirit of its founders. To the South the Valley stretches away and vanishes in the Pacific, where the sun may be seen laying a glistening kiss on the ocean. And to the East, Sierra Madre. Here in a pocket of the mountain, screened from the hot sun and chill winds, man's ingenuity, inspired by a desire to help those in need, is bringing to all a gift from nature's Paradise.

Professor Oscar Selling, head of the Planning Commission, is on the job every day, giving to the city and the park the bene- (Continued on Page Three)

PLAN CAMPAIGN TO RAISE FUND FOR THE SCOUTS

At a meeting of the Finance committee of the Boy Scout community committee, held early this week, plans were laid for a fund raising campaign to meet Sierra Madre's Scout quota.

Those present included Mrs. W. O. Preston, Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, Mr. R. Morgan, R. O. Calkin, H. E. Allen, Harley Hogan and William Barry. Mr. Pritchard was elected chairman, after which he introduced Robert Radford, of Monrovia, who spoke of the Monrovia drive for Scout funds, which raised over $1600. As chairman of the Pasadena-San Gabriel Council Finance committee, he outlined the financial policy, showed how budgets are made, and money spent. His talk answered many questions in the minds of the committee.

'Family Upstairs' First Production By Local Players

The first monthly membership meeting of the re-organized Players of Sierra Madre was held in the Woman's Club House last Friday night. W. R. Humphreys, former president, spoke briefly to the club members and their friends, and introduced his successor, Mrs. Milton Steinberger. She, in turn, presented the newly elected officers. The secretary, Mrs. Charles Collins, read the new by-laws.

A one-act play was staged by the Monrovia little-theatre group. Afterward those present were served with cake and punch.

The first production of the Sierra Madre Players will be a comedy drama called "The Family Upstairs," sponsored by the Red Cross. This play was a hit in New York and Los Angeles. Henry G. Coulter's "The Idealist," which was originally announced for the premier production will be put on in the near future. It has been impossible thus far to satisfactorily cast the two leading roles of the play.

CITY'S PET CAT BURIED, AND 1000 FRIENDS MOURN

A cat of a thousand friends was mourned in Sierra Madre today. The Cat, a coal black Persian named Ted died last Wednesday at a Pasadena cat hospital where he had been taken for treatment by his mistress, Mrs. Frank Smith, of 71 North Lima street.

Ted, six years of age and widely known among Sierra Madreans, adults and children, for his beauty and intelligence, is buried under a giant pine tree on the Smith property. The spot is significant, for Ted's favorite exercise was climbing that particular tree. Ted's companion, Tom, just an alley cat but a close friend and pal for all that, is depressed, Mrs. Smith says, and apparently misses the presence of the deceased feline.

First 'Nite' Ball Clash Next Week

Legion Teams Meets Arcadia
April 22 In Opening Of Valley League

Sierra Madre's 1932 night baseball season officially will get under way April 22 when the local Legion team meets Arcadia's Legionnaires on the public school diamond, according to a playing schedule released today by Waverly Pratt. The games are played outdoors with an indoor ball.

The Legion league, consisting of teams from 12 posts in the 18th American Legion district, comprising teams in San Gabriel Valley, will play until the first of July, with a championship play-off against the 17th district champions, a hoped-for goal of every club. The local Legionnaires will play eight games at home and four away.

Sierra Madre's "nite ball chucks," which number numerous other aggregations, as well as the Legionnaires, have been appearing under the arc lights during the past weeks, "limbering up the limbs and getting out some of the age," according to Pratt.

Games to be played by the local Legion nine against other 18th district teams are as follows:

April 22, Arcadia at home; April 29, Temple City at home; May 3, San Marino away; May 6, Pasadena at home; May 13, East Pasadena at home; May 17, Terrace City at home; May 20, Azusa away; May 27, Alhambra away; June 10, Puente at home; June 17, Monterey Park at home; June 24, El Monte away; and July 1, Baldwin Park, at home.

More Ball Ground Sites Eliminated But Fans Hopeful

Hard ball enthusiasts, all hoping to play here this season, today carried on under more disappointments relative to a diamond site.

Last week they thought they had things about settled. The Los Angeles owner of a large open field on North Sierra Madre avenue was willing to lease the property—on condition.

The condition was that the players clear the property entirely, instead of only the half they would use—and then the lease would last but one year.

And then, Herbert Hoover Jr., seeking quiet and rest, purchased the Picard estate right next door to the prospective baseball field. As peace and quiet is a rarity near a baseball field, this constitutes another difficulty.

Frank P. Meyers, who is working on the proposition, says there are still one or two lines open and Sierra Madre will have hard baseball after all.

Woman's Club Lot Planted As Model To Beautify City

The frontage of the vacant lots on either side of the Woman's Club house have been planted by members of the Garden Section as an example and model for similar work throughout the city. The East lot will bloom with pink and lavender flowers, and the west one will be bright with red, yellow and orange.

It is reported by the Garden Section and the City Planning Commission that some property owners needlessly injure trees by the practice of burning the weeds off vacant lots. And in view of the Olympic beautification program that is being carried out, the city planners ask the cooperation of residents in plowing and spading weeds instead of burning.

Sanitorium For Churchill Road Is Now Proposed

Alice Belcha petitioned the City Council on Wednesday to spot zone a 2 1/2 acre plot on Churchill Road owned by her for a rest home or sanitorium. The application was referred to the Planning Commission for a recommendation. It was accompanied by a letter from adjoining property owners setting forth that they had no objection to the proposal provided the institution did not contemplate the treatment of psychopathic cases.

MANY NEW STUNTS AT EASTER PARTY FOR CITY'S CHILDREN

New stunts, proposed as part of a bigger and better Easter egg hunt and roll on March 26, will be considered tonight when a sub-committee of the Volunteer Fire department meets at the City Hall. The committee consists of Roy Walsworth, George Norris and Frank Lovell.

Observations

By LEE SHIPPEY

Employment is picking up. Every rich man in the country is hiring guards to protect his family or himself from being kidnapped. One more reason why it doesn't pay to accumulate more than moderate wealth.

This country ought to lay off telling the rest of the world how to keep peace long enough to put an end to the sale of machine guns to gangsters.

Herbert Hoover, Jr., has bought a home in Sierra Madre. We're pretty careful what sort of folks we let in, but we welcome the Hoovers. If Hoover, Senior, should be moving next spring we'd be happy to have him, too.

HARTMAN WINS FIRST PRIZE FOR BEST MOVIE

Rudolph R. Hartman of the Hartman Drug company was awarded first prize on Monday evening for the best 100 foot reel of uncut film at the Sunkist Movie Makers' meeting at Covina.

"Bees" was the title of Mr. Hartman's picture. Expert photographers of the Eastman Kodak company were the judges and made the award.

HERBERT HOOVER, JR., BUYS 5-ACRE SIERRA MADRE ESTATE TO GET PRIVACY IN GARDEN

Son Of President Acquires
Pickard Home And Will Move Here Soon

Herbert Hoover, Jr., son of President Hoover, has purchased the Frank Pickard estate of five acres on North Sierra Madre avenue, and will shortly move his family from his present home on Southern California avenue, Pasadena, to Sierra Madre. Alterations on the present nine-room house, including the addition of several bedrooms, and probably nursery for the two Hoover children, will get started at once.

The Pickard house was built about six years ago. It is a brick dwelling, one story, with three bedrooms and three baths. When the place was first listed for sale Mr. Pickard asked $50,000. It is not disclosed what price figured in the sale.

Young Mr. Hoover is said to have selected the Pickard place because it will provide the quiet seclusion and privacy he has been unable to obtain in Pasadena, where a constant stream of curious folk, many with cameras, almost blocked traffic in front of his home.

Balky Vine Delays Date For Big Fete

Firemen All Ready But
Uncertain Weather Forces
Them To Mark Time

Plans for the annual Wistaria Fete reached the mark this week when the weather stepped in to stay the expected progress of the vine's development into the flowering stage. With all the preliminaries arranged and invitations ready for the mail the firemen were unable to set a date for the opening.

Every member of the volunteer department showed up at the vine last Sunday, ready to lend a hand in putting the last finishing touches to the booths and parking places. "When will it be ready?" came the question from each new arrival. Some thought March 17th, others March 24th. Then Mrs. Estelle Fellen, who has watched over the vine for 19 years, arrived.

"It will be close to April 1st," said Mrs. Fennel, said yesterday that the date for the opening would probably be fixed on Sunday, when the committees will meet at the vine.

Legion Pays High Tribute To Late Judge W. R. Lasater

Extolling the qualities of Judge William R. Lasater as friend and comrade, members of the American Legion this week passed a resolution of condolence to be sent relatives of the deceased legionnaire. The resolution expressed the high esteem in which Judge Lasater had been held by citizens of Sierra Madre.

Nearly a dozen Legion members were nominated to fill the vacancies of post historian and executive committee members caused by the judge's death. The announcement was also made that the state department of corporations has granted the local post papers of incorporation.

Local Woman Will Direct Garner Fight

Speaker's Campaign In East End Of County To Be Managed By Mrs. Calkin

Mrs. Grace B. Calkin, of West Grand View avenue, who has been aptly described as the most militant Democrat in Los Angeles county, has temporarily laid aside her newspaper work to take the field in the interest of Speaker Garner, whose friends are striving to make him the Democratic nominee for the presidency.

Mrs. Calkin has been appointed manager of the Garner campaign for delegates in East Los Angeles county, which takes in South Pasadena, Alhambra, Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia and all the San Gabriel valley towns East to the county line. She started to work immediately to set up Garner clubs, and announced that her first canvass in Sierra Madre had disclosed an amazing number of Garner champions right at home.

Mrs. Calkin has a long record of successful political endeavors behind her. She was formerly an assistant secretary of the Democratic National Committee. President Wilson chose her as the first woman to receive an important executive position in the Federal service. She has lived in Sierra Madre for seven years.

City Begins Improvement Of Central Avenue When No Protests Are Filed

Workmen Start On Block Between Baldwin Avenue And Mountain Trail As Council Orders Job To Proceed—
Get Surprisingly Low Price On Material To Be Used
On This And Other Thoroughfares Soon To Be Paved—

A gang of city workmen yesterday started on the improvement of East Central avenue. On Wednesday night the City Council sat to hear protests against the project, but none appearing directed Business Manager Al Myers to proceed with the job at once.

Myers concentrated the workmen on the long block between Baldwin avenue and Mountain Trail and the old, rough, crowned surface was torn up before noon. This block will probably be finished before other sections of the street are torn up, as it is hoped to have Central avenue East of Mountain Trail in good condition during the Wistaria Fete for the convenience of motoring visitors from the East.

Though the Council chamber was comfortably filled on Wednesday night there was neither an oral nor written protest. A communication handed to City Clerk Elmer A. Green and signed by 31 citizens was presented.

Only two of the signers were Central avenue property owners and R. A. Linn, who has appeared before the Council several times at attorney for the Belohavke-Isaacs faction in local politics, announced that the communication was a protest against Ordinance 348, under which the improvement is being made, rather than against the Central avenue improvement itself.

A contract for the crushed rock to be used on Central avenue and other streets to be paved in the unemployment program of the Council and the Central Relief committee was awarded to Consolidated Rock Products Co., on its low bid of approximately 85 cents a ton. The actual bid for all grades excepting one named in the specifications was one dollar. On the lower grade the price was 65 cents. But a discount of 20 cents a ton is allowed. Each of four other concerns were higher, the top figure being $1.40 a ton.

The price secured is said to be exceptionally low and Business Manager Al S. Myers said the price would make it possible to carry through the Council's agreement with the taxpayers to pave the street at a cost to them of 2 cents a square foot.

H. J. Kohl asked the Council whether it proposed to build retaining walls on the properties of Canyon residents fronting on the recently completed roads and wanted to know who was to prepare plans for such improvements if made. He was informed that wall have been built only on properties dedicated to the city and that Council could not anticipate possible petitions.

Mr. Linn's protest communication though lengthy, merely questions the right of City Council to adopt Ordinance 348, or to undertake any public improvements under its provisions. It alleges that the ordinance "fails to designate a responsible party to be in charge" of work undertaken under the ordinance and that it contains no provision for an estimate of the cost of such work.

New Factory Gives Work To 16 Girls

R. H. Davis Moves Dress
Shop To Sierra Madre
To Cut Overhead

Sierra Madre's newest industry today prepared to swing into production at 26 Victoria Lane, where Roy H. Davis proposes to manufacture ladies wash dresses. The start of operations has tentatively been planned for Monday, Mr. Davis declared. Women employees of the shop will be Sierra Madre residents.

"At first we will not be working a full force," he said, "but we hope within 30 days to be running under capacity conditions. We shall start with about six machines, about 10 employees, and will employ 16 girls when we are in full production. It may even be necessary to work in two shifts."

Mr. Davis has been manufacturing wash dresses for more than six years, and moved his factory from Los Angeles to Sierra Madre in an effort to cut overhead.

"In Los Angeles," he said, "we would pay seven times the rent. Here we have the additional assets of quietness, airiness, and our source of employment is steady; the girls do not go from shop to shop hunting another place when it is necessary to slow production a day or so."

"I have already received more than 150 applications for work, and the majority of the women are all experienced seamstresses, necessitating but little tutoring in the methods I must employ. Within a day or so of the plant's opening I expect to have a fully trained crew."

Mr. Davis' market consists of a number of chain stores which absorb his entire output. He does no retail business. He has been a resident of Sierra Madre for 11 years.

Local Legion Gets Gold Wings, Reward For Meeting Quota

The Gold Wings of the State Department of the American Legion, Aeronautic Committee, has been awarded the Sierra Madre Post, according to Commander Embree. This award, to be worn in small insignia form on the caps or lapels of the legionnaires, was made because of the excellent showing of the post in making the membership quota.

At the Legion meeting Monday night arrangements were made for a "gallery" of past commanders to be hung in the Legion room of the City Hall. Although most other posts already have this feature, the Sierra Madre men, through the efforts of Commander Embree, are just inaugurating it.

Collin Hill was nominated to succeed Judge Lasater as Post Historian, and Harley Hogan to head the executive committee. A vote will be taken next meeting.

Home Owners Put 'OK' On Paving Jobs

Orange Grove So Pleased
They Ask Street Be Improved 8 Feet More

Expressing delight over the new 20-foot wide paving the city had placed on Orange Grove avenue, between Baldwin and Hermosa, property owners of that street this week put a real stamp of approval on the work by making a unanimous request that the width be extended eight feet more. Business Manager Al S. Myers and the city engineering force promptly made plans to grant the request.

The original plans called for twenty feet, with a two-foot gutter. The new plans will give the paving a 28-foot width, with a two-foot gutter, or 30 feet in all. Orange Grove avenue would have been finished this week but the additional area of paving will take a few more days. Esperanza street received the last few touches and the entire city paving force moved to Orange Grove, as soon as that job is done the force will move to Suffolk.

More streets are expected to file applications this week. At the present time applications for paving are in circulation on Sunnyside, between Grand View and Alegria, West Central, from Baldwin to the East city limits, and Ramona, between Park and Sunnyside.

SCHOOL NURSE WARNS OF DIPHTHERIA SPREAD

Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, Los Angeles County Health Officer, has issued a warning about increase of diphtheria in the county. For seven years the disease has been on the down grade, but vital statistics lately reveal an increase of 37 per cent. Among these cases 88 per cent were children from 5 to 9 years of age.

To combat this situation in Sierra Madre, Mrs. Barker, school nurse, is launching a city-wide immunization campaign for protection. Immunization will be offered to all children free of charge, and will be administered by a district health officer at the Sierra Madre City School at a future date. It will be necessary to have the written consent of parent, and forms will be provided.

Treatment consists of two injections given four weeks apart. This can safely be given to all children from infancy up. There are 239 children now enrolled in the city school who have been immunized during the five years Mrs. Barker has been school nurse. Out of this number there has not been one unpleasant result, and no child has lost even one day of school following treatment.

GREAT GALAXY OF RADIO STARS AT THE NEW AUDITORIUM

Entertainment in infinite variety is promised patrons of the All Star Radio Revel announced as the first real stage entertainment to be offered in the new Pasadena Civic Auditorium, afternoon and evening, Saturday, March 19th.

More than 100 radio personalities, recruited from 12 different radio stations, are to contribute their individual and collective talents toward making the occasion a memorable one in local amusement annals.

Among the headliners are to be found such well known groups as The Alabama Crooners, 25 negro voices in folk songs and spirituals; The Original Hillbillies, The Montana Cowgirls, The Paramount Four, The Bachelor Twins and others, while the individual entertainers include a score of the greatest favorites. City's Farm Gives Crop For Relief

1,000 Tomato Plants Ready As School Teaches Children To Plant

Work on city improvements coupled with the balmy weather, combined this week to lessen the cares of the Central Relief Committee. There were thirty men from the unemployed list at work every day this week, some in Bailey Canyon, others at the water basin, a few on the parkways, and the balance with the road force on Esperanza and Orange Grove.

Mrs. Jessie Wright, head of the Relief Employment Committee said that the city's co-operation had practically solved the problem of providing jobs for those in need. "The fine thing about it, too," she said, "is that the city is acquiring enduring improvements at a minimum of cost."

Mrs. Humphries, chairman of the Relief forces, announced that the city farm, started a month ago to not only provide foodstuffs for the needy, but to serve as a model for those who had ground on which to plant vegetables, is ready to distribute 1,000 tomato plants.

"The plants are from the Ramona farm," said Mr. Humphries. "They will be given to families with instructions how to replant them and care for them. Within another month they will bear ripe tomatoes. They are the first fruit of the farm we started."

Jim Hensley, after the plumbing about the place. The Chief was very busy with many "conferences" and seeing that every fellow had something to do. George Norris would get tired acting as an executive, so he went away down the parking lot and picked up a shovel. He loaded a wheel barrow with dirt and just as the reporter for "Fire Flames" came along he saw George back into the handles of the wheel barrow and try to pull instead of push it. At one time of the day there were only the "reporter" and one man on the job. Fortunately that there are a number of cars among the firemen, for there are so many things to "go for" that some of the boys would be out of luck.

CITIZEN AROUSED BY CAMPAIGN CANARD

Editor, Sierra Madre News, Sierra Madre, California.

Dear Sir:— In a pamphlet circulated here last week there appeared some alarming figures evidently with the view of embarrassing the City Council. If these figures had been used in conjunction with other figures which were not disclosed by the pamphlet there would have been no cause for concern.

After reading the article I went to the City Hall and was shown that our city financial structure is in excellent condition, and I would advise any citizen to get the facts from the books before accepting the statements made or forming a judgment.

Real estate values are severely injured by malicious statements regarding the finances of any city and if the citizens of Sierra Madre condone such misrepresentation of our financial condition we can't expect outsiders to make their homes in our midst. It does not seem fair at this time, when everyone from the President down, is trying to get things going that a misleading statement of a financial nature should be used for political purposes.

Very truly,
T. W. NEALE.

Girls Show Star Form In Thrilling Basketball Game

With the inter-city basketball contests developing many star players among the young girls, Sierra Madre will soon be able to boast of a quintet capable of meeting out-of-town competition. The games held each week in the Congregational Church gym are not only closely contested but packed with thrills.

Last Monday night's game was won by a quintet composed of Wilma Morrow, captain; Frances

April 8 Named As 'Bird Day' By Governor Rolph

April 8th has been fixed as "Bird Day" in California by Governor Rolph, as part of the nationwide observance. "Birds are the natural enemy of all forms of insect life," said the Governor, "and the increase in the bird life of the nation makes it necessary that there be instilled in the minds of school children of California love of nature and a knowledge of her benefactions." The loss to agriculture from insect pests amounts to $1,300,000,000 annually, he says.

The Governor requested public schools to observe the day with appropriate exercises, including studies of bird life.

Lacey, Anna Green, Edith Hawks, Jane Holland, and Dot Ranahan. The losers were June Lacey, captain, Angeline PerLee, Irene Mid-dough, Dot Walsworth, Dorothy Lichnig and Evelyn Alsen. The score, 29 to 25.

As usual June Lacey walked off with high scoring honors, 16 points being her total.

Makes Plea For Defense At Kiwanis

Public Defender Says Innocent Persons Are Often Sent To Prison

"The Public Defender and the Administration of Justice" was the subject of an address given by Frederick V. Vercoe, Public Defender of the County of Los Angeles, at the Kiwanis luncheon, Tuesday afternoon.

Frank Spencer announced that the speaker next week will be Percy Hammond, of the District Attorney's office, and the following Tuesday Kiwanis guests will be Mayor Porter of Los Angeles, and Chief of Police Steckel.

Mr. Vercoe said: "Many think that it is foolish for the public to hire a district attorney on the one hand to convict, and on the other have a public defender to fight the prosecution. But by the Constitution of the United States and the State of California a man is presumed innocent until he is proven guilty. There are many men now serving time in San Quentin who are undoubtedly guiltless of the crime of which they were convicted."

Examples of cases handled by his department were presented to prove the efficiency and justice dealt the men too poor to pay for counsel. One such case had to do with a robbery charge that depended on the identification of the defendant. He was identified positively by state witnesses, yet at a later date another man confessed to the particular crimes for which he was held. Another incident concerned a man identified as a burglar. The public defender's office checked up on his plea and found that he was actually in Utah at the time of the crime.

"We really save the county much more money than it costs to keep our department in operation," he said. "Many cases are spared court expenses when we have sufficient evidence to convince the District Attorney that our case is a sure one. On the other hand we try to induce the men who come to us for help to plead either guilty or not guilty as the truth may be. If they are guilty we do all necessary to procure probation in worthy cases. And contrary to popular belief, probation is not an easy thing to get in Los Angeles courts. It is only in the cases where past records and nature of the crime allow that it is granted at all."

"Our work is unknown to most people other than the ones actually involved in the courts. Sixty per cent of the criminal cases in the Los Angeles courts are handled by us. And see where this system is far superior to the old appointed counsel system—Formerly the Court would select an attorney at random from the cards of young lawyers just starting in practice. The defendant then would be represented by a try in law, who would be up against an experienced and capable prosecutor. The result, usually, was a verdict of guilty, regardless of justice. With trained deputies of a public defender's office it is a different proposition entirely."

Gordon Brooks introduced Mr. Vercoe.

NEW ROCKNE'S NOW BEING DELIVERED IN THIS TERRITORY

The first showing in this territory of Rockne "65" models, new Studebaker product in the low price field, began early this week at the showrooms of Keller Brothers & Marcy, Studebaker and Rockne distributors, 287 West Colorado street, Pasadena. A large shipment of the new models has been received and immediate deliveries are being made.

The new car is said to be the lowest priced six cylinder automobile ever played on the market, considering size, quality and standard equipment offered without extra charge. It is fully sponsored and guaranteed by Studebaker, and results from several years research of the engineering staff of the Studebaker factory. The car is equipped with the very latest developments in the automotive industry, including switch-key starting, which starts the engine when the ignition is turned on; free wheeling and synchronized shifting.

Smart Spring Coat

Many women this year have an economical desire for the kind of coat that looks smart at any time and place from a morning in the country to afternoon in town. This is a special design by a New York house to meet such a need. It has individual chic and economy.

BAILEY CANYON TO SEAT 2,500 IN MUSIC BOWL

fit of his experience—an experience that has made his own canyon estate one of the most famous in Southern California.

"My place will be nothing like this," he said yesterday, as he stood on the floor of the canyon and swept his arm around the hills. "When I bought my own place and started to work on it they said I was foolish. 'What will you do with that wild canyon?' That is what they all asked. I will make it a garden I said. I will employ what nature has provided in it to make it a garden unmatched. And that is just what we are doing here—we will make Bailey canyon a park and garden unmatched."

Plan Music Bowl

Then Professor Seiling disclosed a plan to make Bailey Canyon the stage for the world's best music—a stage patterned after the Hollywood bowl, but in a setting in which only the products of nature will be the props and scenery.

"On that knoll we will have a stage," said the Professor. "Look around it and you can see where we can place at least 2,500 seats—on this hill, on that one, down the slope there, circled around the bottom of the knoll, every seat within a range of less than one hundred feet of the stage. We will have the best music in the world, and maybe we can broadcast it too, so that it will go all over the world and make our city famous."

For Chamber Music

"I am not thinking of big orchestras such as they have at Hollywood Bowl. I have in mind chamber music, four or five pieces, but the best in the world. We can charge a nominal admission, and then we will get something for parking, and the revenue will make the park self sustaining. There is no limit to what we can do. We can have a concert every Sunday afternoon and people will drive here from all over Southern California."

"Stupendous progress has been made in the Bailey Canyon beautification project," Professor Seiling reported at the City Planners meeting in the City Hall Tuesday night.

"The changes we have made are too numerous to enumerate," he said. "There is now enough room to allow for a congregation of a couple thousand people. There is a natural outdoor stage setting—two tall trees arching together to form the proscenium."

It was suggested that the Sierra Madre Players make use of the canyon for their pageant, instead of using the City Park as heretofore.

Professor Seiling went on to describe the numerous trails that are opening new vistas for visitors in the canyon. The water is held in check by dams, the gullies are filled in; in short, the main rough groundwork is complete. A

Swiss chalet type building is near completion on the grounds. This structure is in harmony with the natural surroundings, and may be used for rest rooms and dressing rooms for the outdoor theatre that is contemplated.

Councilman Lester Layton proposed to the Planners' meeting that a wide right-of-way would be the proper width to allow for the traffic that surely would travel over the road leading into the canyon when people come to know of the place.

Work Done for Relief

The work on Bailey Canyon was started as a measure to aid the Central Relief Committee in providing work for the unemployed. All the work has been done by the city unemployed. The local workers get four hours a day, at 35 cents an hour, and the transients get two hour's work at 25 cents an hour. The cost, considering the results, has been very low.

Jim Hawks, a member of the Planning Commission, and an enthusiastic co-worker with the Professor, said yesterday that they had 500 trees in the city nursery ready for planting in the park. The trees include deodars, caribs, cypress and a few pines.

The plans of the Commission contemplate making the canyon park attractive for nature lovers of all kinds. Horticulturists who have made a survey of Bailey Canyon have declared that there is no spot the whole length of the Pacific that contains so many varieties of nature's best plants and foliage. Screened by the hills from cold and frost the pocket of the canyon sprouts and develops plants that will not endure elsewhere.

New Trails Cut

New paths and trails are being carved into the sides of the hills. They will lead all the way up to the famous falls, with grades of low percentage. The Volunteer Firemen of Sierra Madre, who were pioneers in cleaning up the canyon and preparing it for park purposes, put in a stove and tables for picnickers last summer. More tables and stoves will be placed and a number of spots cleared for picnic parties.

Business Manager Al S. Myers said yesterday that the city will shortly begin the work of grading and improving the road leading to the canyon entrance and into the canyon as far as the proposed music bowl. The work has been done so far by hand labor, but when the city tractor gets into action it will not be long before the park is ready, in its new dress, to welcome the public.

BIG DOUBLE FEATURES WITH NOTED STARS ON WARNER'S SHOW BILL

Romance and diplomacy, crime and the great outdoors, these divergent themes serve in making the coming week's programs of Warner's Egyptian Theatre, at Lamanda Park, outstanding in excellence.

Probably the best balanced double feature bill will be presented Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, when Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Delicious" vie for honors with Ivan Lebedeff and Betty Compson in "The Gay Diplomat." On Thursday night the theatre again offers the "2 for 1" feature of two tickets for one paid admission and a coupon clipped from this week's theatre ad in the News.

Gary Cooper in "His Woman," Zane Grey's "The Rainbow Trail," and a sportrel, and Charley Chase comedy, comprise the bill ending tonight.

An exceptionally fine program begins tomorrow. This consists of the "Pagan Lady," with Evelyn Brent, Conrad Nagel, Charles

Bickford and Lucille Gleason, and "The Homicide Squad," with Leo Carrillo, Mary Brian and Noah Beery. A Tom Patricola comedy "The Homicide Squad," with Leo Carrillo, Mary Brian and Noah Beery. County Assessor Begins To Gather Data On Property

R. J. Mills, deputy county assessor, started this week to make the rounds of Sierra Madre property owners to gather data to fix the annual assessment on real and personal property. Until March 16 he will make personal calls at each address and wherever the required information is not available he will leave a notice. Beginning next Wednesday, and on each succeeding Wednesday, Mr. Mills will be at City Hall between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m.

The assessor requests that all persons calling at City Hall bring along tax bills for proper description of property and auto license numbers. Neglect or refusal to make a statement of property, it is pointed out, will result in increased assessment. Under the law the property owner is obligated to make the statement voluntarily. The assessor's calls are made to expedite the process.

Fire Fighters Get Tribute From Expert

Monthly Meeting Hears Boost For Local Reserve By Forest Head

The Sierra Madre reserve firemen's organization came in for high praise Tuesday night by William Ritzell, president of the Angelus Forest Protective Association, at the monthly gathering of the fire fighters which took place in Masonic Hall. Preceding dinner, the many gathered from all points in the San Gabriel district, heard the minutes of last month's meeting and discussed various recent fires.

It was reported that a small blaze last week attacked the West Fork of the San Gabriel region, and was successfully extinguished. West Fork is about 10 miles into the back-country from Sierra Madre, over the range from the head of Big Santa Anita.

Jim Hawks and Dave Buchanan entertained with a burlesque skit by Stephen Leacock entitled "The Story-Book Hero." One particular gag in it "brought down the house." After this a quartet composed of Jim Heasley, Dave and Jack Buchanan, and Clarence Noshier sang a group of old Negro melodies. They were encored a number of times.

Al Meyers, business manager of Sierra Madre, Chief McMillan, and Fire Chief Richards, were present. Councilman Lester Layton welcomed the assemblage to Sierra Madre.

THE old clock on the mantel shelf is steadily ticking its way toward garden time and the garden lover longs for the feel and smell of the rich warm earth.

The successful garden is the result of careful planning. The space to be allotted to vegetables and greens must be decided upon. Rows, borders, and banks of flowers must be laid out to insure beauty of arrangement and a succession of blooming that will keep

And if you would have a delightful outdoor living room for the enjoyment of family and friends next summer this is the time to plan its arrangement. Furnishings and decoration. Plants, garden furnishings and ornamental features make the outdoor living room inviting and comfortable, and no home is attuned to the mode of 1932 until the grounds are as livable as the house itself.

Any real estate dealer will tell you that an outdoor living room actually adds a great deal more to the value of your property than it costs, and unlike most things you buy, trees, shrubs and evergreens increase in cash value every year after planting.

The possibilities of the garden are endless and the problems met with in developing a productive yet attractive garden are such that they cannot be solved in a day. No better time is available for deciding upon the purposes and appearance of this year's garden than now. Once the garden program is decided upon there is an added zest in carrying it out to realization, watching it should be placed in two classes: The chewing insects which feed on the foliage, and the sucking insects, which pierce the outer surface and suck the juices from beneath.

Chewing insects such as caterpillars, beetles, etc., are controlled by placing a film of poison on the surface of the infested foliage. The material commonly used for this purpose is powdered arsenate of lead, about ten to twelve heaping tablespoonsful to one gallon of water. This should be applied with a spray pump that will break up the liquid into a mist or small particles sufficiently small that they will adhere to the foliage surface.

Sucking insects, such as aphids, or plant lice, are usually controlled with a contact spray; the material should be an irritant, or of a suffocating nature. Best control is effected by actually contacting the insects which are infesting the plant.

For fungus control, Bordeaux Mixture is a standard fungicide. The powdered form may be mixed with water in proportions of about ten or twelve heaping tablespoonsful to one gallon of water.

Harold Carew, literary editor of the Pasadena Star-News, will be principal speaker Wednesday when the Sierra Madre Forum holds its regular meeting at the Women's Clubhouse. His topic will be "Radio, Blessing or Menace?"

Dr. Roman will devote an hour to discussion of current events. The Forum is open to the public.

LOCAL CITY PLANNERS GO TO HEAR EXPERT

Members of the Sierra Madre Planning Commission, including Mrs. John Osgood and Councilman Lester K. Layton, will attend a meeting of the Association of City Planners of Los Angeles County to be held at the Pasadena Athletic Club March 12th.

Dr. Thomas D. Soares, professor of ethics at California Institute of Technology, will lecture on "Common Sense in Government." This talk, says Mrs. Osgood, will be of general interest and open to the public. Reservations may be made with her up to Friday, March 11th. A luncheon will precede the lecture.

SAN GABRIEL DAM No. 2 BIDS WILL BE OPENED MARCH 21

Bids for Dam No. 2, to be built nine miles up the west fork of the San Gabriel Canyon, will be opened on March 21st. With Dam No. 1, which the county will probably build with its own workmen, it will replace the high dam at the Fork site which was abandoned. The new dam is to be of rock fill, or flexible type. It will hold 14,700 acre feet of water. It is intended to withstand temblors and even major earthquakes, and will be the first of the kind in Los Angeles county.

The crest of Dam No. 2 is to be 255 feet above the stream bed. The length of the crest will be 580 feet. Its width, 18 feet. The base of the dam will be 785 feet thick, sunk 50 feet below the level of the stream bed. The engineers' estimated cost of the structure is $2,912,520.

SIERRA MADRE TRIO GETS CLASS HONORS

A meeting was held on Monday by the 10-2 class of the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School, for the purpose of electing class officers. Bill Murphy, former president of the class, presided. Mrs. Anna Mary Magnusson outlined the future activities for the semester and Arthur M. Brown, principal, told the members about the class pins and rings. Sierra Madrans elected to office are: Moreland Kortkamp, vice-president; Marjorie Ashmore, secretary and Everett Gibson, treasurer.

NATIVE CHINESE WOMAN SPEAKS HERE MARCH 18

Sierra Madrans who were disappointed recently in not hearing Dr. Mary Stone of Shanghai, China, will have the opportunity on March 18. She was unable to speak in February because of illness.

Dr. Stone will deliver her address in the Pilgrim Holiness Church at their new location, 28 North Baldwin avenue.

"I'm Going Out you're Boss of the oven"

"Keep my oven absolutely at a temperature of 275 degrees while I'm away" says the modern woman to the oven heat regulator on her new natural gas range. "I'll be back in two or three hours and I'll depend upon you to see that dinner is ready when I get home."

She knows that without worry or even a thought of the meal in the oven, she can spend the afternoon on errands, calls, bridge or golf. Upon her return dinner will be perfectly cooked and all ready to serve.

INDIA with its fakers, its castes and queer religious customs was depicted in an interesting manner by Mrs. Oliver Bainbridge in an address before the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Wednesday morning. She gave fascinating glimpses of visits to princes and princesses and told of their beliefs and mode of living. The inability of India to absorb modern conventions and how it still holds to customs of hundreds of years standing was told in a convincing way.

Mrs. Bainbridge also showed what Great Britain has done to help the great masses of ignorant and illiterate peoples. The sad life of the widows and the various marriage customs were also explained.

The luncheon program was in charge of the Department of American Homes which includes the community service and garden divisions. Mrs. W. J. Lawless, as chairman, presented Mrs. R. W. Solomon who spoke upon "Tall Plantings."

Tall plantings in the garden providing a background for the smaller plants were recommended as a good way in which to carry out a color scheme.

Among plantings recommended were tall cannas, tree dahlias, calceolarias, heather and the holly-hock.

Mrs. Lawless discussed living costs, the family budget, and the necessity for local, state and federal relief measures.

"Glimpses of Mexico," by Mrs. Lodena Garm Wickizer will be presented at the next regular morning program on March 23. During the box-luncheon hour Mrs. O. B. Manchester will give

In A Social Way

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the Congregational Church, when Miss Marguerite LaLone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaLone of 36 West Highland avenue, became the bride of Alfred Domschke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Domschke of 650 West Alegria avenue. Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard performed the ceremony.

The bride, lovely in a gown of white georgette chiffon with a tulle veil and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids, was given in marriage by her father, Miss Hazel Dell of Pasadena, the bride's only attendant, was dressed in pale pink taffeta and carried pink rose buds. Julian LaLone, brother of the bride, served the groom as best man.

Pink peach blossoms, calla lilies, white iris, greenery and candles attractively decorated the church, which was filled to capacity with friends and relatives of the young couple. Miss LaLone has been the recipient of many lovely social events since the announcement of her engagement on December 14.

Following a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Domschke will reside in Pasadena. A quiet wedding was performed by Dean A. G. H. Bode on Monday evening at the Parish House, when Mrs. Jessie Viola Walters of Huntington Park, became the bride of George Hodge of South Gate. Mrs. Winifred Sage of Long Beach, and Robert Boardman of Los Angeles, attended the couple. All were dressed in traveling clothes. Mr. and Mrs. Hodge were Long Beach friends of Dean Bode.

A delightful bridge luncheon was given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Mary D. Goodfellow of 41 East Grand View avenue, for 18 Sierra Madre and Los Angeles friends. A charming Chinese motif was carried out in table and house decorations. Spring blossoms were used for the floral decorations. Winners at contract bridge were Mrs. Currie of Los Angeles, Mrs. J. D. Mackerras, of Pasadena, and Mrs. E. H. Porter and Miss Virginia Jones, of Sierra Madre.

Over 60 invitations have been issued by Mrs. Gordon Brooks and Mrs. Leonard Wamlock for a miscellaneous shower to be given in honor of Mrs. Martha Downs, at the home of Mrs. Wamlock, 258 East Central avenue, this afternoon.

In honor of Mrs. Martha Downs, whose marriage to Clifford Willis of Pasadena, will take place tomorrow evening, a luncheon was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Joseph R. Evans at her home, 717 West Grand View avenue. Mrs. Downs was presented with a lovely set of dishes. Guests included the honoree, Mrs. Downs, Mrs. Roy Edwards, Mrs. Gordon Brooks, Mrs. Hazel Spoelstra, Mrs. George A. Moran, Mrs. Percy Adams, Mrs. Harry Howard, Mrs. Susan Harleman and Mrs. Jack Mitchell of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Joseph Calhoun of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones of the Literature Review for the month.

The next meeting of the Garden Section will be held at the club house at 10:30, March 14. There will be a discussion of sidewalk conditions in Sierra Madre. Members are asked to bring their surplus of small plants for a "plant exchange." The Esther Forman Garden Club and the local P.T.A. have been invited as guests to this meeting. Those attending will please bring sandwiches and coffee will be served. Following the meeting a visit will be made to Bailey canyon. The city officials and the Planning Commission will act as hosts in the inspection of the progress of the work that will result in a very beautiful natural park for Sierra Madre.

Reservations for the St. Patrick's Day bridge party being given by the Junior League on Thursday, March 17, at 2 o'clock may be made with Mrs. Emile E. Smith (239-2).

The Los Angeles district division of art met Monday at the Los Angeles public library at 10 o'clock. Mrs. George Barker, president of the Santa Monica Art Association lectured on "Dominant Qualities" in pictures. Mr. and Mrs. Barker will exhibit in June in the Little Gallery.

Representing the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, Mrs. J. H. Robertson recently attended the presidents' council in Torrance, and the Junior conference in Los Angeles.

WEEDS --- TREES

--HOMES-- Humphries

Weeds may come and weeds may go but trees go on (almost) for ever. Spent an hour yesterday in Bailey Canyon and folks, here's a park almost God made.

Sierra Madre's charm lies in her trees and in many cases now is the time for all good people to plant trees.

Here's a slogan I've coined: "Sierra Madre where homes come first." Let's spick and span our little town . . . not just for the Wistaria but all the time. We wash our faces oftener than once a year, don't we?

Getting back to homes, and the home is the backbone of the country . . . I have a home here that can be bought for six thousand dollars and to those who know a home bargain when they see one, I say investigate . . . Big Living Room, Patio, 2 fine Bedrooms, Dining Room, Bath and Shower Stall. Good location . . . Modern homes all around . . . and to those who want a stunning place at a low figure . . . I say investigate.

Believing and Working always for
